

Gaza under attack

scritto da Neodemos | 8 Marzo 2024

In Gaza, 50,000 women are currently pregnant. Almost 160 women will give birth every day amid the violence. Most are unable to access health services. With bombs raining down on hospitals and United Nations shelters, the people of Gaza have nowhere safe to go. UNFPA, the United Nations sexual and reproductive health agency, calls for an immediate humanitarian ceasefire.
